

HAWTHORNE

POLICE DEPARTMENT

PRESS RELEASE

Issued 05/27/2009

HPD DR 09-8052

Suitable For Public Dissemination

Police arrest suspect involved in at least two street robberies this morning.

Hawthorne Police responded to Eucalyptus Park (12000 Inglewood Ave) around 8 am on a report of victim who was just robbed of his personal belongings while at the park.

The victim chased the suspect to the 11900 block of Gale Ave. Officers arrived and apprehended the suspect who was hiding behind one of the apartment buildings. The suspect still had the victim's personal items on him. The victim was not injured.

Investigators were able to link this suspect with two other street robberies in the area. Detectives are looking to see if the suspect is responsible for several more robberies.

Arrested: Edward Wilson, 20 yrs old, from Hawthorne.